Morning Message

Dear First Grade Friends,

Today is Monday, March 16, 2020. Did you have a nice weekend? What did you do? I had a very nice weekend hanging out with my dog Milly. We went for a hike!

This week we will learn more about fractions and telling time in math. We will also learn about three new vowel teams oa, oe, and ow. In science we will discover more about ocean animals and explore the sea!

I hope you all have a marvelous Monday!

Warmly,
Ms. Butz

Everyday Mathematics

1.) Warm Up: Mental Math and Fluency

-Draw a circle. Divide it into 2 equal shares. What would you call one of the parts? Half, 1 out of 2 parts, one-half

-Draw a rectangle. Divide it into 2 equal shares. What would you call both of the parts? Whole, 2 halves, 2 out of 2 parts

-Draw a rectangle. Divide it into 4 equal shares. What would you call one of the parts? 1 forth, 1 out of 4 parts, a quarter

2.) Telling time to the Half Hour:

Fundations/Reading

- 1.) Warm Up: R-Controlled Vowels Video

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T0xEzqRuBB4>

- 2.) Three New Vowel Teams (oa, oe, ow): Today we will learn three new vowel teams that say /o/. One of these vowel teams, ow, will also say /ou/. Because it makes two sounds we will learn two key words for ow.

Parents say the letter-keyword- sound and have your child echo.

oa-boat-/o/

oe-toe-/o/

For ow, we have two keywords because ow can say /o/ or /ou/.

ow-snow-/o/

ow-plow-/ou/
